

MASONS OF VIRGINIA.

THE SECOND NIGHT'S PROCEEDINGS OF THE GRAND LODGE.

The Grand Working Committee—The Old Grand Lodge Officers, With One Exception, Re-Elected at Night.

Many of the visiting Masons and local brethren began to gather in large numbers at the Temple about 1 o'clock yesterday.

The occasion was the called communication of two lodges in each of which the grand working committee were present and, acting as lodge officers, conferred the degrees.

Richmond Lodge, No. 19, was the first called at 10 o'clock and the First and Second degrees were impressively conferred.

Then Dove Lodge, No. 51, was called, and the third, or Master Mason's, degree, was given with all the beauty and dignity that goes with it.

These called communications were largely attended, and are productive of much good to the craft.

Eight of the boys from the Masonic Home were in the Temple building yesterday. They are bright, clever lads, and looked well in their new, neat uniform of gray with military style cap.

Their names are: Berry, Steinbach, Charles Steinbach, Wyatt King, Moffett King, New Bass, Charles Walton, Smith Ayers and Frank Acece.

Past Grand Master J. Howard Wyatt and Grand Senior Deacon Frank A. Reed, at the request of Grand Secretary Isaacs, 12 east Franklin street.

There was much admiration expressed by the grand master, the officers and many of the members of the Grand Lodge at the attractive paper The Times had yesterday.

A pile of them was sent to the Grand Lodge and the Blue Lodge rooms for the use of the members. The beauty of the cuts of the competitive plans for the new Masonic Home, published in yesterday's Times, and its report of the Grand Lodge proceedings and Masonic Home article were highly complimented.

A supply of the papers was sent out to the Masonic Home in charge of Master Charles Walton, of the Home.

The Grand Lodge was not in session yesterday morning, and the members enjoyed themselves riding and driving and walking around the city.

All the hotels are full with the visitors, and the names of prominent Masons are seen on the registers of the various hotels. Hotel, Davis House, Hotel Dodson, Ford's Hotel, American Hotel, St. Claire Hotel, and others.

The Grand Lodge was occupied at its evening session with the election of officers, this being the first business in order. The Grand Lodge took a recess for supper at 10:30 P. M. It was served in the banquet hall by Grand Steward Krouse. All the old officers were re-elected, there being no contest except for the office of grand treasurer, made vacant by the late death of Brother W. T. Allen. The candidates for this office were: Brothers John P. Mayer, who was appointed treasurer pro tem, when the late treasurer died, and Joseph V. Bidgood. Brother Bidgood was elected. The roll of grand officers now stands as published in The Times of yesterday, with the exception of the grand treasurer, who is Brother Joseph V. Bidgood. The Grand Lodge then adjourned until to-day.

The Lodge of Ark Mariners meets to-night at 8 o'clock in the chapter room in the Temple. The degrees of Ark Mariner and Secret Master will be conferred upon a number of candidates, including two grand masters.

MR. S. T. BEACH'S FUNERAL.

The Public Schools Will be Largely Represented.

Mr. Samuel T. Beach, who died at his residence, No. 17 west Marshall street, on Tuesday evening at 10:30 o'clock, was in his fifty-seventh year.

For many years he conducted a classical school for boys in this city, during which time he educated a number of boys who now occupy honorable positions in the commercial world.

Mr. Beach gave up his private school to take the principalship of the Colored High and Normal School in this city on September 15, 1888, and remained in the school system until his death. The school under his management made great progress educationally by his firm and careful discipline, and it now ranks with the best schools in the city in discipline. He was highly esteemed by the teachers and pupils of his school.

The funeral takes place from Broad-street Methodist church this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The following is a list of the pall-bearers:

Active—Messrs. George F. Murrill, Lewis S. Edwards, R. W. Flournoy, Taylor H. Powell, Julian P. Thomas, S. A. McGilvray, William F. Richardson.

Honorary—Messrs. W. E. Fox, Robert Munford, J. H. Hart, A. S. Bradley, H. F. Cox, W. G. Jones, C. P. Raby, S. T. Pendleton, C. W. Harwood, G. M. Smith, S. E. Bishop, E. M. Garnett and W. F. Sublett.

The members of the City School Board, the principals of all the public schools and the teachers of the Normal School will attend in a body, and each department will contribute flowers.

The galleries of the church will be reserved for the pupils and other colored persons who may wish to attend.

Mr. Beach's brother and son reached the city in time for the funeral.

The Knights of Pythias and Legion of Honor, of which he was a member, will attend the funeral.

Deceased leaves a widow, two sons and four daughters.

HOME AGAIN.

Governor McKinney and Party Safely Return From New Orleans.

Governor McKinney, Mrs. McKinney, Mrs. E. D. Price, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Lancaster, Mr. J. L. Williams, Little Misses Frankie McKinney and Kitty Lancaster and nurse, and Masters Berkeley Williams, Henry Carrington Lancaster and Johnny Stuart Lancaster, returned from their trip to New Orleans at 5:30 P. M. on Tuesday. From Atlanta, where they waited several hours for the evening train, they sent to New Orleans for publication, the following resolution, adopted with great enthusiasm:

Resolved, That we desire to express our heartfelt and special thanks to Governor Foster, Chief Justice Nichols, Senators and Miss White, ex-Mayor Shakspeare and family, Captain Dupuy and family, Mr. E. S. Bennis and family, Colonel Hawkes, Mr. O'Connor, the gentleman of the Commercial Club, the members of the press, and the Washington artillery for the attention shown us during our visit to their city. The kindness extended to us by them, and by all with whom it was our pleasure to meet, too numerous to name, compels us to testify that the large-hearted and broad-minded people of the great city of the Sunny South are as wonderful as the Nile, and as they have shown themselves generous and ready in so many crises calling for wisdom and exalted virtue.

They also adopted the following: Governor McKinney and party wish to make public acknowledgment of the kindness and attention of Captain W. H. Green and other officers of the Richmond and Danville and others systems, in promoting the convenience and pleasure of their visit to New Orleans to attend the National Niagara Canal Convention, and of the courtesy of Mr. Barbour Thompson in giving them the use of his private car.

John Sheridan. To-night John F. Sheridan and his excellent company will appear at Mount Academy in his laughable comedy, "Mrs. Bridget O'Brien, Esq." Mr. Sheridan will be remembered in Richmond by his clever work in "Fun on the Bristol." He is now under the management of Mr. Frank W. Sanger, the manager of the Broadway Theatre, of New York, whose connection with this company is a sufficient guarantee of its excellence. Mr. Sheridan has just finished a six weeks' engagement at the Bijou Theatre, in New York, where his audiences have been nightly the capacity of the house.

RICHMOND'S BON MARCHE.

Thousands Visited the Cohen Company's Reception Last Evening.

The Cohen Company's reception last evening was a great success. The big building was crowded on every floor for two hours, and the stream coming and going was constant for the two hours this Richmond Bon Marche was open to the public. The store was profusely decorated with growing plants and electric lights, and parlor lamps with variegated shades made beautiful effects in every nook and corner. The large force of the establishment, in evening costumes, were kept busy exhibiting the immense variety of pretty things displayed. The great crowds were welcomed at one door and issued at the other, thus preventing a tedious wait of the ever-moving mass. Professor Stein's Orchestra, emplaced in the elevated space where congregated the conveyors which carry goods from every part of the store to be wrapped, and where the cashiers perch during the busy hours of the day, displayed the occasion was unique, pleasant and successful. Thousands of people visited the store between 8 and 10 o'clock P. M., and any approximate number even would be hard to determine.

WILL AID THE BAZAAR.

About One Thousand Dollars Were the Proceeds Tuesday Night.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Lee Camp Confederate Veterans met in Lee Camp Hall at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Mrs. J. W. White presided, and an unusually large number were in attendance. They decided to join the ladies of the Hollywood Memorial Association in their efforts to aid the fund for the Confederate Memorial and Literary Society and the Confederate Soldiers' and Sailors' monument.

Several destitute families of deceased Confederate veterans were reported, which they decided to look after during the winter and assist in a material way.

The committee on the entertainment at the Mozart Tuesday night reported that the net proceeds amounted to about a thousand dollars.

One-half of this amount goes to Lee Camp and one-half to the Ladies' Auxiliary.

Captain Curtis has to complete his contract within two years. Most of the improvements contemplated are between Richmond and Dutch Gap, but some improvements will also be carried on in other parts of the river. At present the workmen are engaged at Richmond bar and Wilton.

DECEMBER WEDDINGS.

Mr. J. C. Hobson, Miss Annie Camp; Mr. Robert S. Gray, Miss Evelyn C. Paine.

A beautiful marriage ceremony took place at Monumental church yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, when Miss Annie Fisher Camp became the wife of Mr. J. C. Hobson, of Goochland. Rev. Dr. John B. Newton performed the ceremony. The bride, who is a beautiful woman, was attired in a gown of white crepe de chine trimmed with Duchesse lace and pearl passementerie. She is a decided brunette, tall and stately, and the soft tulle veil yesterday enhanced her loveliness. She is a daughter of the late George W. Camp, and the present Mrs. Annie F. Camp, and niece of Mr. Robert H. Fisher. She is a young lady of rare accomplishments, and has many friends in Richmond and other cities of Virginia.

The groom, well-known here, is a prosperous agriculturist of Goochland county. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hobson left for Northern cities to spend their honeymoon.

Gray-Paine.

Miss Evelyn C. Paine and Mr. Robert Somerville Gray were wedded at the Second Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon at 6 o'clock by Rev. Dr. Moses D. Hoge.

The bride is the charming and accomplished daughter of the late Robert A. Paine, of the ante-bellum firm of Kent, Paine & Co., and the present Mrs. Mary H. Paine, No. 308 Arch street, Gamble's Hill.

The groom is the son of Mr. Edward Gray, deputy commissioner of revenue, and one of the most popular clerks at Fourquare, Price & Co.'s establishment.

Wedded at Highland Springs.

The first marriage celebrated at Highland Springs took place Tuesday evening in the parlor of "Ivy Cottage," the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Rohleder, when their daughter, Mary, became the bride of Mr. S. W. Thacker.

Rev. Lewis W. Burton officiated. Miss Grace Rohleder, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. Joseph Rohleder, a brother, was best man. The bride was unusually pretty in a handsome suit of white broadcloth and Thibet lamb's wool, with a single Jacqueminot rose in the coils of her dark hair. She carried a lovely bouquet of the same roses. It was a very quiet and simple, but pretty wedding, and rendered more so by the beautiful and impressive Episcopal ceremony.

The groom is a promising young civil engineer of Big Stone Gap, Va. Mr. and Mrs. Thacker left on the 10:30 P. M. train for Charlottesville, to visit the groom's parents; after spending some time with them and visiting other points, they will go to Big Stone Gap, their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dickman, of Florence, S. C., returned home yesterday after a delightful visit to Mrs. Dickman's mother, Mrs. Gohardt.

Mr. Shilbhood expects shortly to remove his family to Richmond.

Death of Mrs. Tieser.

Mrs. Theresa Tieser died yesterday at 12:45 o'clock at the residence of her husband, 106 west Clay street.

Mrs. Tieser was fifty years of age. The dark curtain was drawn silently across this life which for many months had been one of suffering, and with its closing came the beginning of joy and peace. A devoted mother has passed away, and a loving wife is no more. Three children now mourn that loss which can never be supplied, and a husband is heart-broken. The funeral arrangements have not as yet been completed, but will be announced in The Times to-morrow.

Treasurers and Sheriffs.

Among the visitors at the Capitol yesterday were the following: J. O. Hutchinson, sheriff of King William county; J. A. Vandewater, sheriff of Lee county; C. W. Porter, treasurer of King and Queen; R. S. Campbell, sheriff of Fluvanna county; D. A. Forbes, clerk of Buckingham county; R. A. East, treasurer of Halifax county; C. C. Jones, treasurer of Craig; W. T. Jones, treasurer of Charlottesville.

ST. JOHN'S FREE READING-ROOM.

It is Now Open and Supplied With Newspapers and Various Games.

The chapter of St. Andrew's Brotherhood in connection with St. John's Episcopal church, in furtherance of its work amongst young men, has established a free reading-room, to be open every night during the week except Sunday from 7 to 10 o'clock. The brick chapel in the churchyard has been comfortably filled with chairs and tables, and is well lighted and warmed, and supplied with the Richmond, New York and Baltimore daily papers, and a large number of other weekly papers and journals and with all the leading magazines and periodicals. Provision is also made for games, chess, backgammon, draughts, etc. The room was opened for the use of the people last night, and was visited by a considerable number of gentlemen. It is to be hoped that the effort thus made to provide rational and improving occupation during the evenings for the young men of Church Hill will be appreciated and the chapter be rewarded for the effort it has made. The committee having charge of the work is composed of Messrs. F. J. Craigie, Sr., H. F. Southern and J. F. Jackson, and they have worked earnestly to achieve success, and trust to find that their efforts will be appreciated by a nightly-growing attendance. They desire no greater reward than to see the young men spending some part of their leisure time in improving their minds rather than in loitering about the street corners and otherwise, wasting their opportunities of fitting themselves to become useful and respected citizens.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The Central Woman's Christian Temperance Union held a meeting at the Friars' House, at No. 7, east Clay street, yesterday afternoon.

The attendance was large, and a number of visitors from other unions were on hand.

It had been expected that a number of delegates from the city of Good Templars would be present, but owing to an important meeting of the Grand Lodge it was impossible for them to attend.

The meeting was made interesting by the reports of the various committees, which showed that the good work of the society is being everywhere. It was stated that a thousand pages of temperance literature had been distributed since the past meeting.

Arrangements for the Christmas work of the unions were discussed at some length.

Henrico County Court.

Justice of the Peace Bernard Frischkorn had Jane Simons before him yesterday at the Henrico county court-house.

Jane was charged with trespassing on the premises of and abusing Samuel Johnson, and was fined $5.00, which she was unable to pay, and had to go to jail in default.

"Squire Frischkorn had another case before him yesterday, that of Lee Brown for beating his step-child. The case was continued till Monday next.

The success of the "Beau Monde" is undoubtedly assured. There is a good field here for such a publication, and it should be liberally patronized and supported by our people. It certainly has the heartiest good wishes from the press.

The demand for it was so great at the news stands as to quickly exhaust the first issue, and many people not believing them when they said they could get no more went to the publication office, only to be disappointed. The general appearance of the paper would do credit to any city, and the matter in it is especially interesting to all those who follow the movements of our most prominent people. Those in charge of the paper are in a position to give all such information first-hand, and to make an unusually readable paper out of it, being well-known to our city. The first issue was a success; the second will be more so, if there is room for improvement, and there is but little, if any.
